History Repeats Itself.

Annually the spring "Opening" at the Palais Royal comes and goes.....annually the new season's goods are temporarily distributed at "Opening" prices.....annually the opportunity is grasped by many and neglected by not a few.....annually the occasion of congratulations and regrets.

Mothers' Day.

Men's and women's and home furnishings are mentioned in this year's list of "Opening" prices, but tomorrow is Saturday and Saturday is children's day, so that mothers are specially invited to profit by the passing opportunity-to select children's very latest spring style garments at "Opening" prices.

Dinners and Luncheons Yesterday-Mrs. J. W. Stewart Will Address

a Meeting at Mrs. Foster's.

One of the brill:ant events of next week will be the concert Wednesday afternoon, March 25, by the Boston Instrumental Club, assisted by Mrs. Frank A. Gardner as soloist. The entertainment is for the benefit of the Washington Foundling Asylum, under the patronage of Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Hoke Smith Miss Herbert, Mrs. Patenotre, Mrs. Romero Mrs. Mendonca, Mrs. Gana, Mrs. John F. Foster, Mrs. Micou, Mrs. Van Renssealer Berry, Mrs. McLanahan, Mrs. Sowers, Mrs. Barney, Mrs. Cassell, Mrs. Lieber, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Munn and the board of lady visitors. The concert promises to be as great a success socially and financially as the talent secured will make it artistic ally.

Mrs. Elkins entertained at a yellow tulip luncheon yesterday Miss Voorhees, Mrs. J Thomson Swann, Mrs. Whittemore, Mrs Andrews, Mrs. John R. McLean, Mrs. Michler, Mrs. Munn, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Willcox, Mrs. Halliday, Mrs. English, Mrs. Wyl'e, Mrs. Joy, Mrs. Arnold, Miss Edes and Mrs. Legare.

Assistant Attorney General Dickinso gave a dinner last night, at which the guests were the Vice President, the chief justice, the Secretary of the Navy, the Attorney General, Justice Harian, Justice Vhite, Justice Brown, Justice Peckham colicitor General Conrad, Judge Taft, Judge Lurton, Mr. Judeon of St. Louis, Mr. Har mon of Chicago, Mr. Maury and Mr. Lind Mrs. Stilson Hutchirs pleasantly entertained a number of friends yesterday af-ternoon to meet her guest, Mrs. Fremont, wife of Col. Charles Fremont, who has so many acquaintances in this city.

A number of ladies prominent in society are to hold a meeting at the residence of Mrs. John W. Foster tornorrow morning at half-past 11 in the interest of the Na-tional Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild. The object and work of the guild are to be ex-plained by Mrs. John Wood Stewart of New York, the general secretary. Mrs. Stewart is a niece of Governor Levi P. sumed from and after tomorrow evening. The parlors at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. N. C. Naylor were filled Wednesday vening by the members of the congrega-tion of the Maryland Avenue Baptist Church. It being the third anniversary of his assuming the pastorship, some of the ladies thought it would be pleasant to recognize it in this manner, and the result was a very pleasant occasion, not only to the pastor, but to his people as well. Ice cream and cake, which the ladies had taken care to provide, were partaken of during the evening.

He also inclosed a copy of the will of Terence McAnanama, a brother of the woman, who died in New Zealand in 1892. This will speaks of certain nephews and a niece living in county Wicklow, Ireland-Catharine, Thomas and James Doran. Whether they are living or not Mr. Coibert does not know, although he had addressed a letter to them. Should they be dead, the estate will receive nearly $2,000 additional, but Mr. Colbert suggests pended until he has had an opportunity to hear from them. He also states that in October, 1897, the estate will receive the further sum of £49.10 from New Zealand.

CARE OF DESTITUTION.

A Widower and Two Children Arrive

Here Practically Pennil A middle-aged man accompanied by his two children, a boy seven years old, and a girl fourteen years, called at the Police Court today and saw Policeman Flynn, to whom he related a sad story of destitution Felix Laurent was the name he gave. He is a Belgian glassblower, who took out his naturalization papers in Pennsylvania several years ago. For four years he lived in Baltimore, during which time his wife died. Three weeks ago he started in the direction of this city and stopped at Beltsville, where he remained until yesterday, when he came here. When he reached the city last evening he had money enough to pay for a night's ledging for himself and children, and 5 cents to spare. With this money he bought a loaf of bread this morning.

When the policeman had heard their story he escorted them into court and recited the facts to Judge Kimball. At the suggestion of the court the man and his children were taken to police headquarters, where Sanitary Officer Frank made provision for their temporary relief. The vision for their temporary relief. The children will be cared for by the board of children's guardians until the father is able to support them.

A MONTH IN JAIL.

Charles Edwards Sentenced for Stealing Cancelled Treasury Stamps. Charles C. Edwards, the colored Treasury Department messenger, charged with steal ing some 25,000 cancelled stamps from official papers last fall, today pleaded guilty in Criminal Court No. 2, and Judge Cox sentenced him to a month in fail. The government consented to such a disposition of the case, because the man has already served several months in jail awaiting trial.

William Washington, implicated with Edwards in the matter, is now in jail awaiting trial. Scme 40,000 cancelled stamps, it was discovered, had been stolen.

Thefts Reported.

Daniel Hennessy of 459 I street southwest has asked the police to find two plush albuns which were stolen from his house about a month ago.

James Daniels of Fairfax, Va., com-plained to the police this morning that fif-teen geese were stolen from his wagon yesterday afternoon.

The makers are the same old familiar ones we have indorsed-and you have enjoved for years. You can see their matchless taste in the abundance of new styles and fresh colors. You don't need proof beyond their names that you will be thoroughly satisfied with your purchase. They are quoted as authority on Glove fashion. Their creations are taken as criterions-upon which all calculations are based. We are putting before you just the very best we can find-and giving you the advantage of the larg-ing satisfaction—in Gloves.

Death of Mrs. J. Riffard Mickle. The sudden death of Mrs. J. Riffard Mickle, well known in this city, especially in church work, which took place this morning at the Homeopathic Hospital, has cast a gleom over a large circle of friends. Surviving a surgical operation, it was thought she was out of danger and would soon be with her family again. Her death was wholly unexpected, and has created profound sorrow and deepest sympathy for the bereaved family. Mrs. Mickle was prominently connected with Hamline M. E. Church. As a leader of Sunday school music she was unexcelled. Her life was
